IN-KIND DONATION GUIDELINES

Thank you for your interest in donating to Big Big Table Community Cafe! As a small nonprofit restaurant that uses a pay-as-you-can service model, every community contribution makes a big difference to the success of our operation. Here are some best practices for making a donation of goods:

- Please ensure that all food items are unopened, have undamaged packaging, and are not nearing or past their expiration date. Organic is preferred whenever possible.
- For large quantities of items (i.e. the results of a food drive) or physically large/heavy items (i.e. 25 lb. bag of flour) we ask that you use the contact info at the top of the page to schedule a delivery time.
- Items listed in bold text are high-priority items that we are always on the lookout for. Items that are italicized make an excellent donation in small quantities (i.e. bringing in a single carton of eggs in exchange for lunch one afternoon!)
- Chef Steven works hard to make the majority of our lunchtime offerings from scratch, which is why our wishlist favors raw ingredients rather than prepared foods like canned soup. We do occasionally accept perishable prepared foods from our restaurant partners (i.e. Fig Tree Patisserie frequently contributes desserts to our menu!), but these items must be prepared in a licensed commercial kitchen and their delivery coordinated in advance.
- Any surplus items we receive but cannot use internally will be made accessible to our guests via our dining room's Little Free Stuff rack, or shared with one of our food rescue partners such as Friends of Night People.
- Please let us know if you would like an in-kind donation receipt!
- When in doubt, email us at community@bigbigtable.org :)
